About RAPTOR, Inc.

Jeff Hays presents...

RAPTOR, Inc. ~ a non-profit organization dedicated to preservation of birds of prey through rehabilitation, education and conservation.

RAPTOR, Inc. goals:

- 1) Education of the public on the importance of raptors and the preservation of their native habitat.
- 2) Rehabilitation and return of injured raptors to the natural environment.

RAPTOR, Inc. has a limited number of captive birds, held under federal and state permits, which cannot be returned to the wild due to the extent of their injuries.

This will be an opportunity for you to meet some of these avian ambassadors for raptor conservation.
